Site visits

Need someone with years of picture framing and interior knowledge to support your selection process? Keen to talk your ideas through, to check they'll work in practice? Every one of our packages comes with free site visits.

We'll come to your hotel, help to assess your needs, and the spaces you're keen to enhance, and suggest ideas to suit. Traditional hotels may be after an elegant accompaniment to their interiors, while boutiques often look for the edgy and modern. We understand these needs and guide clients to the packages, frames and pictures to meet budget and market.

If you have you own pictures and items to frame, then we can assist. How about framing recent awards and Rosette Plates for the restaurant?

We are an award winning Sussex company serving the south east. Our service includes samples and catalogues to browse, but more importantly a real person to listen to your individual needs.

Glass options

FLOAT

Float glass is the standard, classic option. It is ideal for open edition prints and its clarity and elegance allows for the full spectrum of colours in each picture to present at their best.

NON REFLECTIVE

Our specialist non-reflective glass has to be seen to be appreciated. The difference is dramatic, and especially in spaces with lots of light it encourages effortless viewing like no other protective cover. It works by cleverly diffusing the reflected natural or indoor lighting, reducing often highly distracting reflection, to let the picture contents stand proud.

Picture sizes

60 x 80 cm

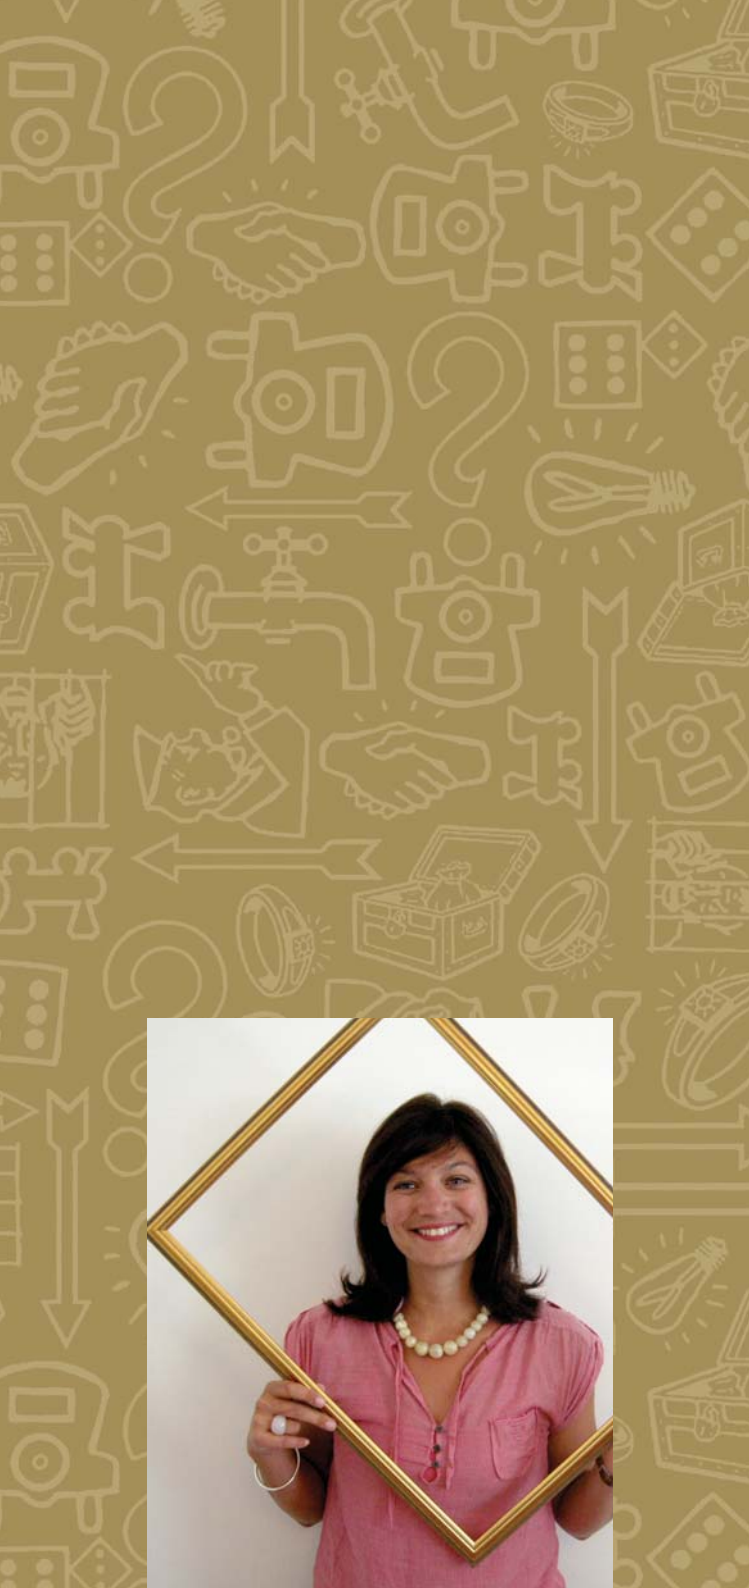

Framed images of this size offer substantial impact in small to medium sized rooms stand alone or as a set. They're ideal for more compact or boutique communal areas and bedrooms.

120 x 90 cm

Make an impact with our large, beautifully mounted and framed images. This size is ideal for making statements in large or high ceiling locations, such as libraries, bars, meeting rooms, halls and so on.

“Lucy was exceptionally helpful, coming to the hotel with sample books and helping us to choose some fantastic pictures which are much admired and commented on by both hotel guests and non-residents using the Bar. We now use the service to supply pictures for all our refurbished rooms and have been very pleased with their prompt and efficient service and reasonable prices.”
